III. Periodicals, Reference Works, and Series

The following abbreviations for many periodicals, reference works, and series have been styled for reference use in CSQ. Authors citing these works need give only the abbreviation followed by the exact reference. When citing from a journal or work not listed here, give the full title of the journal or work in the first full reference (as in the CSQ Style Sheet) and subsequently cite by short title. If the short title you use is not intuitively obvious, specify it in the first citation ("hereafter Syria") and use that form in subsequent citations.
